The descriptions, designs, data and information contained herein are presented in good faith, and are based on BASF's current knowledge and experience. They are provided for guidance only, and do not constitute the agreed contractual quality of the product or a part of BASF's terms and conditions of sale. Because many factors may affect processing or application/use of the product, BASF recommends that the customer test the product to determine to its own satisfaction whether the product is suitable for a particular purpose and suitable for the customer's intended application and uses. Customer should conduct such tests as may be necessary to determine the suitability for a particular purpose of any product purchased from BASF. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by BASF, all sales are made and all samples are furnished subject to the current terms and conditions of BASF. It is the responsibility of the customer to read and understand all limitations, restrictions, designs, data and information that may be furnished by BASF, and to determine whether the product is safe, suitable and technically and legally appropriate for the customer's intended uses. Customer is responsible for the safe handling of all materials purchased from BASF and for using appropriate BASF recommended protective equipment and following safety precautions recommended by BASF. Nothing in this publication is to be considered as a license to operate under or a recommendation to infringe any patent or other proprietary right. BASF makes no warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, nor that any BASF product will be delivered free of any third party's intellectual property rights claims. Any statements or suggestions that may appear in this publication concerning possible use of our products are made without representation or warranty that any such use is free of patent infringement and are not recommendations to infringe any patent. The user should not assume that toxicity data and safety measures are indicated herein or that other measures may not be required. Unless otherwise expressly indicated, BASF does not make any representations or warranties regarding the environmental impact of any BASF product, whether express or implied, including, but not limited to, warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. Any statements or suggestions that may appear in this publication concerning environmental impact are made without representation or warranty that any such impact is free of liability
